CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER
ELECTORAL COMMISSION

NOTICE

No. 950 of 2025

Corrigendum

In notice No. 207 of 2025 published in the Official Gazette No. 9 dated 24th February, 2025, for the parcel numbers “PR7818-PR7891” to read “PR7820”.

No. 951 of 2025

SUPREME COURT OF SEYCHELLES

Reportable

[2025] SCSC ...

MC 29/2025

In the matter between:

MARIE MARGUERITE EVANGELINE SEWARD*(rep by K Domingue)Petitioner

and

GUY JAMES THEOPHANE SEWARDRespondent

Neutral Citation: M Seeward v G J T Seeward (MC 29/2025) [2025] SCSCBefore: Govinden C JSummary: Application for interdiction and appointment of guardianHeard: 7 August 2025Delivered: 13 August 2025

ORDER

The respondent, Guy James Theophane Seeward, is interdicted. The petitioner, Marie Marguerite Evangeline Seeward, is appointed the guardian of the respondent in accordance with Article 505 of the Civil Code.

GOVINDEN CJ

The petitioner is the wife of the respondent. The petitioner avers that the respondent was examined by medical practitioner, Dr Vesha S. H Pillay on the 24th of February 2025, and she has produced a Medical Report, a copy of which is attached to her petition, showing the findings made by the doctor following the examination. The report reveals that the respondent has severe cognitive decline and is unable to recall basic information. It also states that he is not oriented to time, place and person, and is unable to carry out complex tasks, such as dealing with money or counting past the digit 10.

The petitioner further avers that the respondent's condition is continually deteriorating, and that the respondent's memory is severely affected. He is therefore unfit to carry out daily living activities, including caring for himself and performing complex tasks such as banking transactions, and lacks the capacity to make any informed decisions or give proper consent.

The petitioner avers, and has stated through her testimony, that she is not suffering from any infirmity that may impede her capacity to act as guardian, and that there are no legal impediments to prevent her from being appointed the guardian of the respondent.

As a result, the petitioner is seeking an order of interdiction and to be appointed as guardian of the respondent from this Court, so that she can manage the affairs of the respondent and provide for his care and well-being.

Having considered the unrebutted evidence led before this Court, the Court finds that under Article 489 of the Civil Code a person of full age who is habitually feeble minded, insane or a lunatic, can be interdicted, even if he has lucid intervals. The petitioner through medical evidence adduced before the Court has established that her husband is so feeble of mind that he is incapable of taking care of his affairs, which in my view is equivalent to being feeble minded. Article 490 of the Civil Code allows three categories of people to commence such proceedings as the current one. These are: the relative of the person whose interdiction is sought, or a spouse with regard to the other spouse, or the Attorney General. In the instant case, the petitioner is the spouse of the respondent. I am therefore of the view that the petitioner is qualified to bring these proceedings.

Moreover, the Attorney General, in his capacity as Ministere Publique under Section 151 (d) of the Seychelles Code of Civil Procedure, has no objection to the petitioner's application.

In light of the foregoing, I find that the petitioner has proved that the respondent needs to be interdicted and that she be appointed in order to manage his affairs. I therefore make an Order interdicting the respondent, Guy James Theophane Seeward, and appoint the petitioner, Marie Marguerite Evangeline Seeward, as the guardian of the respondent in accordance with Article 505 of the Civil Code.

This Order shall be served upon the respondent, posted within 10 days on the notice boards of courtrooms and notarial offices, as well as being published in the Gazette.

Signed, dated, and delivered at Ile du Port on this 13th day of August 2025
Govinden CJ
