BOARD OF INQUIRY
INTO THE IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS AND AMMUNITIONS IN THE SEYCHELLES

PROCEDURES AND RULES FOR THE BOARD OF INQUIRY

Established under the Defence (Board of Inquiry on Importation of Firearms) Regulations, 2025

PART I: PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1. Title and Commencement

1.1 These procedures may be cited as the Defence (Board of Inquiry on Importation of Firearms) Procedures and Rules.

1.2 These procedures shall come into effect on the date of publication in the Gazette and shall remain in force for the duration of the Board's mandate.

2. Interpretation

2.1 In these procedures, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Act" means the Commission of Inquiry Act (Cap. 10 of 1962);

"Board" means the Board of Inquiry established by the Commander in Chief under section 14 of the Defence Act [CAP 58];

"Member" means any person appointed as a Board member under the Defence (Board of Inquiry on Importation of Firearms) Regulations 2025;

"Chairman" means the member designated as Chairman by the Commander in Chief;

"Non-Documentary Item or Exhibits" means any tangible or intangible item that is not a Document and is relevant to the subject matter of the Inquiry Board, including physical objects, substances, specimens, digital datasets, databases, software code, audio recordings, visual recordings, audiovisual recordings, models, prototypes, demonstration materials, samples, extracts, forensic materials, and any other item in physical or electronic form;

"Secretary" means the Secretary to the Board appointed under section 7 of the Act;

"Witness" includes any person summoned or invited to give evidence before the Board;

"In camera hearing" means a hearing held in private, closed to the public and media;

"Confidential evidence" means evidence given under conditions of confidentiality as provided in these procedures;

"Anonymous evidence" means evidence given without disclosure of the witness's identity;

“Protected witness” means a witness who has been granted protections under Part VI of these procedures;

“Online evidence” means evidence given by electronic means including video conferencing or other remote communication technologies;

“Physical hearing” means a hearing held and attended in person;

“Interested party” means any person whose conduct or affairs is the subject of inquiry or who is implicated or concerned in the matter under inquiry as contemplated by section 16 of the Act;

“Legal representative” means counsel or attorney representing a party before the Board;

“Working day” means any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a public holiday in Seychelles.

3. Nature and Purpose of the Board

3.1 The Board is established to conduct an inquisitorial inquiry, not adversarial litigation. The Board’s role is to investigate, gather facts, and establish the truth in the public interest.

3.2 The Board operates differently from ordinary court proceedings in the following fundamental respects:

- (a) The Board actively investigates and seeks evidence rather than waiting for parties to present their cases;
- (b) There are no “parties” in the traditional sense, no “plaintiff” or “defendant”, and no “prosecution” or “defence”;
- (c) The Board controls the scope and direction of the inquiry and determines what evidence is relevant;
- (d) The Board is not bound by strict rules of evidence applicable in courts, though it must observe principles of natural justice and procedural fairness;
- (e) The Board seeks to establish facts and make findings, not to determine guilt or innocence as is the case in criminal proceedings;
- (f) The Board may receive hearsay evidence, anonymous evidence, and other evidence that might not be admissible in ordinary court proceedings, subject to appropriate weight being given to such evidence.

3.3 The Board’s paramount duty is to serve the public interest by conducting a thorough, fair, and transparent inquiry (subject to necessary confidentiality protections) into the matters specified in its terms of reference.

PART II: GENERAL CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS

4. Venue and Sittings

4.1 The Board shall sit at the Palais de Justice, Ile du Port, Mahe, Seychelles, unless otherwise directed by the Board.

4.2 The Board may, in its discretion, sit at such other places within Seychelles as it deems appropriate for the proper conduct of the inquiry.

4.3 The Chairman may regulate the mode, conduct and management of the proceedings before the Board as he thinks fit.

4.4 A member or any other person required to participate in the proceedings may be permitted to attend virtually.

4.5 The Board shall fix the dates, times, and duration of its sittings. The Board may sit on such days and at such hours as it determines, including outside normal court hours and on non-working days, if necessary.

4.6 The Secretary shall give reasonable notice to all persons required to attend.

4.7 The Board may adjourn any sitting from time to time and from place to place as it considers appropriate, pursuant to section 10 of the Act.

5. Mode of Inquiry

5.1 All proceedings of the Board of Inquiry shall be held in camera.

6. Conduct and Decorum

6.1 All persons attending the Board's proceedings, whether in person or online, shall:

- (a) Conduct themselves with dignity and respect;
- (b) Refrain from interrupting the proceedings;
- (c) Not make recordings (audio, video, or photographic) without the express permission of the BOARD;
- (d) Switch off or silence mobile phones and electronic devices;
- (e) Follow all directions given by the Chairman or any member.

6.2 Any person who wilfully insults the members or the Secretary, wilfully and improperly interrupts the proceedings, or is guilty of contempt of any member shall be guilty of an offence under section 14 of the Act.

6.3 The Board may order the removal of any person who disrupts proceedings or fails to comply with directions.

6.4 Legal representatives shall conduct themselves in accordance with their professional obligations and shall not engage in tactics designed to obstruct or delay the inquiry.

PART III: COMMUNICATION AND ADMINISTRATION

7. Official Communications

7.1 All communications to the Board shall be addressed to: secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc.

7.2 All correspondence, applications, submissions, requests, and any other communications intended for the Board shall be sent to the Secretary at the above email address.

7.3 The Board shall endeavour to respond to communications within two (2) working days, though complex matters may require additional time.

7.4 All substantive communications to the Board shall be made in writing via email. Telephone inquiries may be made for administrative matters only.

7.5 Persons wishing to communicate confidentially with the Board should mark their communication "CONFIDENTIAL - FOR THE CHAIRMAN'S ATTENTION ONLY" and follow the procedures in Part VI regarding protected witnesses.

8. Website and Public Information

8.1 The Board shall maintain a website containing:

- (a) The Board's terms of reference;
- (b) These procedures and rules;
- (c) Information on how to contact the Board;
- (d) Information on how to give evidence, including protections available;
- (f) Public transcripts and documents (subject to confidentiality restrictions);
- (g) The Board's final report when delivered.

8.2 The Secretary shall ensure the website is regularly updated and accessible to the public.

9. Records and Documentation

9.1 The Secretary shall:

- (a) Record all proceedings of the Board;
- (b) Maintain custody of the Board's seal, all documents, exhibits, and evidence received;
- (c) Prepare transcripts of evidence taken;
- (d) Maintain a register of all witnesses;
- (e) Maintain a secure register of protected witnesses (separate from public records);
- (f) Ensure proper security and confidentiality of all records.

9.2 All records of the Board shall be preserved and shall be delivered to the Commander in Chief upon completion of the inquiry or as otherwise directed.

PART IV: EVIDENCE AND WITNESSES

10. Donation of Evidence

10.1 The Board may receive evidence in the following forms:

- (a) Oral testimony at physical hearings;
- (b) Oral testimony via online/video conferencing;
- (c) Written statements and affidavits;
- (d) Documentary evidence;
- (e) Non-documentary items or exhibits;
- (f) Expert reports;

- (g) Audio or video recordings;
- (h) Interrogatories
- (i) Any other form the Board considers appropriate.

10.2 The BOARD is not bound by strict rules of evidence and may receive any evidence it considers relevant and probative, including hearsay evidence, provided that:

- (a) The evidence is relevant to the matters under inquiry;
- (b) Appropriate weight is given to the nature and source of the evidence;
- (c) Principles of fairness and natural justice are observed.

10.3 Any person who wishes to give evidence may contact the Board by:

- (a) Sending a written statement to secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc;
- (b) Requesting to appear before the Board;
- (c) Submitting documents or other non-documentary items or exhibits;
- (d) Using the confidential procedures in Part VI if protection is sought.

11. Summoning of Witnesses

11.1 Pursuant to section 12 of the Act, the Board has power to summon witnesses and to call for the production of documentary and non-documentary items or exhibits.

11.2 Summonses shall be in the form prescribed in the Schedule to the Act or in a form substantially similar thereto.

11.3 Summonses may be served by:

- (a) Any designated officers detailed to attend to the Board
- (b) The Secretary or authorised staff;
- (c) Email to the last known email address of the person summoned, with confirmation of receipt;
- (d) Any other method the Board considers effective.

11.4 A summons shall specify:

- (a) The date, time, and place of attendance;
- (b) Whether attendance is required in person or virtually;
- (c) What documents or items (if any) must be produced;
- (d) Any special conditions applicable to the appearance.

11.5 Reasonable notice shall be given, generally not less than seven (7) days, though the Board may shorten this period in urgent circumstances.

12. Obligations of Witnesses

12.1 Pursuant to section 13 of the Act, all persons summoned are bound to obey the summons as fully as if summoned to the Supreme Court.

12.2 Witnesses must answer all questions put to them fully and satisfactorily to the best of their knowledge and belief, subject to:

- (a) The privilege against self-incrimination under section 14 of the Act;
- (b) Any other legal privilege recognised by law;
- (c) Objections on grounds of relevance or oppression, to be determined by the Board.

12.3 No witness shall be compellable to incriminate himself or herself, and every witness shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities applicable to witnesses in the Supreme Court.

12.4 Witnesses must produce all documents specified in the summons unless there is lawful excuse for non-production.

12.5 Any person who fails to comply with their obligations under sections 13 or 14 of the Act commits an offence and is liable to the penalties specified in section 14.

13. Taking of Evidence

13.1 All witnesses giving oral evidence shall be sworn or shall make an affirmation or declaration as appropriate, administered by a member or the Secretary pursuant to section 12(3) of the Act.

13.2 In the examination of witnesses—

- (a) The Board shall conduct the examination of witnesses in a manner it considers appropriate to elicit the truth;
- (b) The Board may ask questions at any time;
- (c) The Board may adopt an informal conversational style rather than formal examination procedures if this better serves the inquiry.

13.3 (a) Pursuant to section 12(2) of the Act, the Board may receive evidence by affidavit where it considers this desirable to avoid expense or delay or for any other special reason;

- (b) Written statements may be admitted in evidence without the witness appearing in person, subject to—
 - (i) The statement being verified by oath or statutory declaration;
 - (ii) The Board being satisfied of its authenticity and reliability;
 - (iii) Any interested party being given an opportunity to respond;
 - (iv) The Board giving appropriate weight to evidence not tested by questioning.

13.5 Pursuant to section 12(2) of the Act, the Board may administer interrogatories to any person and require full and true replies.

13.6 The Board may—

- (a) Appoint its own expert advisers;
- (b) Receive expert reports and testimony from qualified persons;
- (c) Direct that expert evidence be given on specified issues.

14. Documents and Exhibits

14.1 Any person summoned to produce documents must bring originals unless the Board permits copies.

14.2 The Board may—

- (a) Inspect and retain documents;
- (b) Make copies of documents;
- (c) Direct that documents be provided in electronic or searchable format;
- (d) Return originals and retain copies where appropriate.

14.3 Where documents contain confidential information, the Board may—

- (a) Receive them on a confidential basis;
- (b) Review them in camera.

14.4 The Board may accept copies, electronic documents, or other secondary evidence where it is satisfied as to authenticity.

14.5 The Board may receive and take custody of non-documentary item or exhibit and preserve, store, or otherwise maintain the non-documentary item or exhibit in a secure manner to prevent loss, alteration, or degradation.

14.6 The admission of any material exhibit shall be subject to the Board being satisfied that:

- (a) The item or exhibit is relevant to the Inquiry
- (b) A sufficient description, provenance, or chain of custody has been provided to identify the item or exhibit and contextualise its significance;
- (c) The admission of the item or exhibit is necessary for the just and effective conduct of the Inquiry.
- (d) The Board may impose conditions on the admission of a non-documentary item or exhibit, including but not limited to conditions concerning its handling, testing, confidentiality, and ultimate disposal or return.

PART V: ONLINE EVIDENCE AND REMOTE PARTICIPATION

15. Online Evidence Facilities

15.1 The Board shall facilitate the giving of evidence by online means using secure video conferencing or other appropriate electronic communication technology.

15.2 Online evidence may be taken—

- (a) Where a witness is unable to attend in person due to location, health, or other genuine reasons;
- (b) Where the Board considers it appropriate for efficiency or convenience;
- (c) For protected witnesses where additional security is required;
- (d) At the Board's discretion for any other reason.

15.3 The Board shall establish technical requirements and protocols for online evidence, including:

- (a) Approved video conferencing platforms;
- (b) Security and encryption requirements;
- (c) Identity verification procedures;
- (d) Procedures for administering oaths remotely;
- (e) Management of documents and exhibits in online hearings; (f) Recording and transcription of online evidence.

16. Procedure for Online Evidence

16.1 Any person wishing to give evidence online shall:

- (a) Apply to the Secretary at secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc;
- (b) Provide reasons for seeking to give evidence online;
- (c) Provide contact details and technical capabilities; and
- (d) Comply with any technical requirements specified by the Board.

16.2 The Board shall determine whether to permit online evidence, considering:

- (a) The nature and importance of the evidence;
- (b) Whether the witness can reasonably attend in person;

- (c) Technical feasibility;
- (d) Fairness to interested parties;
- (e) The need to test evidence through questioning;
- (f) Any security or confidentiality concerns.

16.3 The Board may conduct hybrid hearings where some participants are physically present and others participate online.

16.4 Evidence given online shall have the same status and weight as evidence given in person, subject to the Board's assessment of reliability and demeanour.

17. Online Hearing Protocols

17.1 Witnesses giving evidence online shall:

- (a) Ensure they are in a private, quiet location free from interruption;
- (b) Ensure adequate internet connectivity and audio/visual quality;
- (c) Display their identity as directed by the Board;
- (d) Follow the same rules of conduct as apply to physical hearings;
- (e) Not record proceedings without permission.

17.2 The Secretary shall:

- (a) Test technology in advance with witnesses;
- (b) Ensure proper recording of online proceedings;
- (c) Manage any technical difficulties;
- (d) Maintain security of online sessions.

17.3 In the event of technical failure, the Board may:

- (a) Adjourn briefly to resolve the issue;
- (b) Continue with other matters;
- (c) Reschedule the evidence;
- (d) Receive evidence by alternative means.

PART VI: PROTECTION OF WITNESSES - WHISTLEBLOWER PROVISIONS

18. Purpose and Scope of Witness Protection

18.1 These provisions are designed to encourage persons with relevant information to come forward and give evidence without fear of reprisals, retaliation, or adverse consequences.

18.2 The following classes of protection are available:

- (a) "Confidential evidence" where the witness's identity is known to the Board but not disclosed publicly;
- (b) "Anonymous evidence" where the witness's identity is not disclosed even to interested parties (subject to fairness considerations);
- (c) "In camera testimony" where evidence given in closed session;
- (d) "Redacted public records" where public transcripts or reports with identifying information is removed;
- (e) "Security measures" where physical security, secure communications, or other protective measures are made available to the witness.

18.3 Any person who has relevant information may seek protection under these provisions, including:

- (a) Current or former public officers;
- (b) Employees of any entity relevant to the inquiry;
- (c) Contractors, consultants, or service providers;
- (d) Members of the public;
- (e) Any person who reasonably fears adverse consequences from giving evidence.

19. Grounds for Protection

19.1 The Board may grant protection to a witness who demonstrates reasonable grounds to believe that giving evidence could result in—

- (a) Physical harm, threats, or intimidation to the witness or their family;
- (b) Loss of employment or other economic retaliation;
- (c) Professional or reputational harm disproportionate to the public interest in disclosure;
- (d) Discrimination, harassment, or victimisation;
- (e) Breach of a duty of confidentiality that is outweighed by the public interest;
- (f) Any other adverse consequence that might deter the witness from giving full and frank evidence.

19.2 The Board shall balance the witness's need for protection against:

- (a) The public interest in the proceedings;
- (b) The need for interested parties to know and respond to evidence affecting them;
- (c) The reliability and weight of anonymous or confidential evidence;
- (d) Principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

20. Application for Protected Witness Status

20.1 Procedure: Any person seeking protection shall:

- (a) Contact the Board by email to secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc with the subject line "CONFIDENTIAL - PROTECTED WITNESS APPLICATION";
- (b) Provide a written application stating:
 - (i) A summary of the evidence they can provide (without revealing identity if seeking anonymity);
 - (ii) The specific risks or consequences they fear;
 - (iii) The type of protection sought and whether it should be provided before, during or after testimony;
 - (iv) Any supporting information or documentation.
- (c) The application itself shall be treated as confidential unless the applicant consents otherwise.

20.2 Upon receiving an application, the Secretary shall—

- (a) Acknowledge receipt confidentially;
- (b) Assign a confidential reference number;
- (c) Place the application before the Board for consideration;
- (d) Not disclose the application or the applicant's identity except as authorised by the Board.

20.3 The Board shall consider the application and may:

- (a) Grant the protection sought;
- (b) Grant alternative or modified protection;
- (c) Refuse the application;
- (d) Seek additional information;
- (e) Interview the applicant confidentially before deciding.

20.4 The Board's decision shall be communicated to the applicant confidentially via the Secretary.

21. Anonymous Evidence Procedures

21.1 Where the Board grants anonymity, it shall issue an order specifying—

- (a) That the witness's identity shall not be disclosed;
- (b) That the witness shall be identified by a pseudonym or reference number;
- (c) Which persons (if any) may know the witness's identity;
- (d) What measures shall be taken to preserve anonymity during testimony;
- (e) Any restrictions on publication or disclosure.

21.2 (a) Anonymous witnesses may give evidence with only authorised persons present;

- (b) Anonymous witnesses may give evidence via online means with identity concealment (e.g. voice distortion, visual obscuring if necessary);
- (c) The Board may direct that the witness's physical appearance or identifying characteristics not be disclosed;
- (d) Documents provided by anonymous witnesses shall be redacted to remove identifying information.

- 21.3 (a) Transcripts of anonymous evidence shall use the pseudonym or reference number;
- (b) Any version released publicly shall be further redacted to prevent identification;
 - (c) The Secretary shall maintain a separate sealed register containing the true identities of anonymous witnesses, accessible only to members.

- 21.4 (a) The Board shall be conscious that anonymous evidence may carry less weight than identified evidence;

- (b) Where evidence from an anonymous witness seriously implicates a person, the Board shall consider whether fundamental fairness requires some form of disclosure or whether the evidence can be corroborated from other sources;
- (c) The Board shall not rely solely on anonymous evidence to make critical findings against a person unless satisfied that this is justified in the circumstances and consistent with fairness.

22. Confidential Evidence Procedures

- 22.1 Where a witness is granted confidentiality (but not full anonymity), the Board shall specify:

- (a) That the witness's identity shall not be publicly disclosed;
- (b) That the witness's identity may be known to the Board and necessary staff;
- (c) Whether interested parties may be informed of the witness's identity on a confidential basis;
- (d) What protective measures apply to testimony and documents;
- (e) What information may appear in public records or the final report.

- 22.2 (a) Where evidence from a confidential witness affects an interested party's conduct or interests, the Board shall consider whether that party must be informed of:

- (i) The substance of the evidence;
 - (ii) The witness's identity (on a confidential basis);
 - (iii) Sufficient information to respond fairly.
- (b) The Board may require interested parties to give undertakings not to disclose the witness's identity or take retaliatory action;
 - (c) Breach of such undertakings may constitute contempt under section 14 of the Act.

23. Security and Support Measures

23.1 The Board may implement additional security measures for protected witnesses, including:

- (a) Secure communication channels;
- (b) Separate entrances and waiting areas at hearing venues;
- (c) Screens or other physical barriers during testimony;
- (d) Security personnel;
- (e) Restrictions on photography or recording;
- (f) Any other measure necessary to protect the witness.

23.2 The Board may liaise with police and any other relevant authorities where necessary to ensure witness safety.

23.3 The Board may permit a support person to accompany a vulnerable or fearful witness.

24. Prohibition on Retaliation

24.1 No person shall:

- (a) Threaten, intimidate, or harm any person who has given or intends to give evidence to the Board;
- (b) Dismiss, suspend, demote, or otherwise disadvantage any employee or contractor because they gave evidence to the Board;
- (c) Discriminate against, harass, or victimise any person because of their cooperation with the Board;
- (d) Take any retaliatory action against a witness or potential witness.

24.2 Any such conduct may:

- (a) Constitute contempt of the Board;
- (b) Be reported to appropriate authorities for investigation and prosecution;
- (c) Be referred to relevant regulatory or oversight bodies;
- (d) Be specifically noted in the Board's report.

24.3 The Board may, at any stage, issue protective orders or directions to prevent retaliation against witnesses.

25. Certificate of Indemnity

25.1 Pursuant to section 18 of the Act, the Board may grant a certificate of indemnity to any witness who has made a full and true disclosure of all facts on which they were examined, where the Board is satisfied it is in the public interest to do so.

25.2 Such certificate shall bar any civil or criminal proceedings (other than perjury) against the witness in respect of acts or things revealed by their evidence, upon production and proof of the certificate.

25.3 A witness may apply for a certificate of indemnity either:

- (a) Before giving evidence, indicating that full disclosure would be made;
- (b) After giving evidence.

25.4 The Board shall consider:

- (a) Whether the witness has made complete and truthful disclosure;
- (b) Whether the public interest in obtaining the evidence outweighs the public interest in potential proceedings against the witness;
- (c) The seriousness of any wrongdoing disclosed;
- (d) Whether the witness was a primary wrongdoer or a witness to others' conduct.

PART VII: REPRESENTATION AND INTERESTED PARTIES26. Right to Representation

26.1 Pursuant to section 16 of the Act:

- (a) Any person whose conduct is the subject of inquiry shall be entitled to be represented by counsel or attorney at the whole of the inquiry;
- (b) Any person who is in any way implicated or concerned in the matter under inquiry shall be entitled to be represented by counsel or attorney at the whole of the inquiry;
- (c) Any other person may be represented by counsel or attorney.

26.2 A person intended to be represented shall give reasonable notice in writing to the Secretary, stating:

- (a) Their interest in the inquiry;
- (b) Why representation is necessary;
- (c) The name and contact details of their proposed representative.

27. Role of Legal Representatives

27.1 Legal representatives appearing before the Board shall:

- (a) Assist the Board in its inquiry rather than pursuing adversarial tactics;

- (b) Cooperate with the Board's procedures and directions;
- (c) Conduct themselves professionally and courteously;
- (d) Remember that the Board is inquisitorial, not adversarial.

27.2 Legal representatives may:

- (a) Apply for protections for their clients e.g. witness protection measures;
- (b) Advise their clients against self-incrimination.

27.3 Legal representatives may not:

- (a) Obstruct or delay the inquiry;
- (b) Coach or improperly influence witnesses;
- (c) Disclose confidential evidence or protected witness identities in breach of the Board rules.

28. Notice to Interested Parties

28.1 Where the Board intends to examine matters that may adversely affect a person's conduct, reputation, or interests:

- (a) The Board shall, where practicable, give that person notice;
- (b) The notice shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person to understand the matters to be examined;
- (c) The person shall be given a reasonable opportunity to respond, either by:
 - (i) Giving evidence themselves;
 - (ii) Any other means the Board permits.

28.2 The Board shall determine what constitutes reasonable notice based on the circumstances, but generally not less than seven (7) days.

28.3 Failure to give notice shall not invalidate the inquiry where the Board determines that:

- (a) It was not practicable to give notice;
- (b) The person subsequently received adequate opportunity to respond;(c) No substantial unfairness resulted.

29. Procedural Fairness

29.1 The Board shall observe principles of natural justice and procedural fairness, including:

- (a) Adverse findings affecting a person's interests shall not be made without giving that person an opportunity to respond;
- (b) The Board shall act impartially and without bias;

(c) Proceedings shall be conducted fairly, though not bound by strict court procedures.

29.2 Given the inquisitorial nature of the Board, procedural fairness does not require:

- (a) Formal pleadings or charges;
- (b) Discovery or disclosure in advance of all evidence;
- (c) Cross-examination as of right;
- (d) Strict adherence to rules of evidence;(e) Procedures identical to those of a court of law.

29.3 The Board shall balance:

- (a) The rights of individuals to respond to allegations;
- (b) The public interest in an efficient and thorough inquiry;
- (c) The protection of witnesses and confidential sources;
- (d) The inquisitorial mandate to investigate and establish the truth.

PART VIII: APPLICATIONS AND SUBMISSIONS

30. Applications to the Board

30.1 Applications to the Board shall be:

- (a) In writing;
- (b) Sent to secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc;
- (c) Clearly stating the relief sought and the grounds;(d) Supported by any relevant documentation.

30.2 Applications may include requests for:

- (a) Protected witness status;
- (b) Adjournments;
- (c) Certificates of indemnity;
- (d) Any other relief within the Board's powers.

30.3 The Board shall determine applications:

- (a) In its discretion;
- (b) As expeditiously as possible;
- (c) After considering any responses from affected parties where appropriate;(d) Without unnecessary formality.

PART IX: REPORT AND PUBLICATION

31. Draft Report and Publication

31.1 Upon completion of the inquiry, the Board shall prepare a draft report containing its findings, conclusions, and recommendations.

31.2 Upon finalisation, the Board shall:

- (a) Submit the final report to the President [Commander in Chief] in accordance with section 8 of the Act read with section 14(1) of the Defence Act;
- (b) Submit a full statement of the proceedings and reasons for conclusions as required by section 8 of the Act.

31.3 The Board shall endeavour to submit the report to the Commander in Chief within the timeframe specified in the Defence (Board of Inquiry on Importation of Firearms) Regulations 2025.

PART X: SUBMISSIONS AND CLOSING PROCEDURES

32. Board's Own Research and Inquiries

32.1 The Board may:

- (a) Conduct its own research and investigations;
- (b) Obtain expert advice or reports;
- (c) Board studies or analyses;
- (d) Make site visits or inspections;
- (e) Gather information from any source it considers relevant.

32.2 Where the Board relies on material obtained through its own inquiries that may affect findings against any person, that person shall be given an opportunity to respond to such material.

PART XI: CONTEMPT AND ENFORCEMENT

33. Contempt of Board

33.1 Pursuant to section 14 of the Act, the following conduct constitutes contempt and is punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both:

- (a) Refusing or omitting without sufficient cause to attend when summoned;
- (b) Attending but leaving without permission;
- (c) Refusing to be sworn or make an affirmation;
- (d) Refusing without sufficient cause to answer questions fully and satisfactorily;
- (e) Refusing or omitting without sufficient cause to produce documents required by summons;

- (f) Wilfully insulting the members or the Secretary;
- (g) Wilfully and improperly interrupting the proceedings;
- (h) Being guilty of any contempt of any member.

33.2 The Board may also treat the following as contemptuous conduct:

- (a) Deliberately giving false evidence (subject to prosecution for perjury);
- (b) Attempting to intimidate or influence witnesses;
- (c) Disclosing confidential evidence or protected witness identities in breach of orders;
- (d) Destroying or concealing evidence;
- (e) Coaching witnesses to give false evidence;
- (f) Taking retaliatory action against witnesses;
- (g) Breaching undertakings given to the Board;
- (h) Any other conduct that obstructs or tends to obstruct the proper conduct of the inquiry.

33.3 Where the Board believes a person may be in contempt:

- (a) The BOARD shall inform the person of the alleged contempt;
- (b) The person shall be given an opportunity to explain or excuse their conduct;
- (c) If the Board finds contempt established, it may:
 - (i) Issue a warning or reprimand;
 - (ii) Refer the matter to the Attorney General for prosecution under section 21 of the Act;
 - (iii) Report the contempt to relevant professional or regulatory bodies;
 - (iv) Note the contempt in its report to the President.

33.4 Pursuant to section 21 of the Act, no prosecution for contempt shall be commenced except by direction or with the consent of the Attorney General.

34. Compelling Attendance

34.1 Pursuant to section 13 of the Act, the Board has the powers of the Supreme Court to compel attendance of witnesses who fail to obey summonses.

34.2 The Board may:

- (a) Issue bench warrants for the arrest of non-compliant witnesses;
- (b) Request police assistance in securing attendance;
- (c) Refer matters to the Supreme Court for enforcement orders.

34.3 Before taking coercive measures, the Board shall generally:

- (a) Attempt to contact the witness;
- (b) Ascertain reasons for non-attendance;
- (c) Give the witness an opportunity to comply;
- (d) Consider whether there is sufficient cause for non-attendance.

35. False Evidence and Perjury

35.1 Any person who gives false evidence before the Board, knowing it to be false, may be prosecuted for perjury under the general criminal law of Seychelles.

35.2 The Board may refer suspected cases of perjury to the Attorney General or police for investigation and prosecution.

35.3 Witnesses shall be warned when sworn that giving false evidence may result in prosecution.

PART XII: COSTS AND EXPENSES

36. Witness Expenses

36.1 Pursuant to section 15 of the Act, witnesses attending to give evidence are entitled to fees allowed to witnesses attending the Supreme Court on a criminal trial.

36.2 Witnesses shall:

- (a) Submit claims for expenses to the Secretary;
- (b) Provide receipts or other documentation as required;
- (c) Submit claims within thirty (30) days of giving evidence.

36.3 The Secretary shall tax witness fees in accordance with section 15(1) of the Act.

36.4 Pursuant to section 15(2) of the Act, the Board may disallow the whole or any part of a witness's fees where it considers appropriate, including where:

- (a) The witness's evidence was frivolous or irrelevant;
- (b) The witness unnecessarily prolonged proceedings;
- (c) The witness refused to cooperate or was in contempt;
- (d) Other circumstances make it inappropriate to award fees.

37. Legal Costs

37.1 The Board does not generally award costs to or against parties appearing before it.

37.2 However, the Board may, in exceptional circumstances:

- (a) Recommend that the Government reimburse reasonable legal costs incurred by a person whose conduct was investigated but who was fully exonerated;
- (b) Recommend that costs be paid to persons who provided substantial assistance to the inquiry;
- (c) Note in its report where unreasonable conduct by a party caused unnecessary expense.

37.3 Such recommendations are not binding on the Government.

38. Board Expenses

38.1 All expenses of the Board, including:

- (a) Remuneration to the Secretary and staff (if any);
- (b) Witness fees;
- (c) Venue and facility costs;
- (d) Technology and equipment;
- (e) Expert advisers and consultants;
- (f) Any other expenses attendant upon the inquiry;

shall be paid from general revenues as directed by the President pursuant to section 19 of the Act.

38.2 The Secretary shall maintain proper accounts of all expenditures.

PART XIII: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS39. Interpretation and Application of Procedures

39.1 These procedures shall be interpreted:

- (a) Liberally and purposively to facilitate the efficient conduct of the inquiry;
- (b) Consistently with the Act;
- (c) Consistently with principles of natural justice;
- (d) So as to promote the public interest objectives of the inquiry.

39.2 In case of any conflict between these procedures and the Act, the Act shall prevail.

39.3 Nothing in these procedures shall limit the inherent powers of the Board to regulate its own proceedings under section 10 of the Act.

40. Amendment of Procedures

40.1 The Board may amend these procedures at any time by:

- (a) Publishing amended procedures on its website;
- (b) Notifying all interested parties who have appeared before the Board;
- (c) Allowing a reasonable transition period where appropriate.

40.2 Amendments shall not unfairly prejudice rights already exercised or relied upon.

41. Gaps and Unforeseen Matters

41.1 Where these procedures do not address a particular situation or issue, the Board shall:

- (a) Exercise its discretion under section 10 of the Act;
- (b) Act in accordance with principles of fairness and natural justice;
- (c) Have regard to analogous procedures in other Boards, Commissions or courts where appropriate;
- (d) Consider the inquisitorial nature of its mandate.

41.2 The Board may issue specific directions or practice notes on particular issues as they arise.

42. Languages

42.1 Proceedings of the Board may be conducted in English, French, or Creole, being the official languages of Seychelles.

42.2 The Board shall provide interpretation services where necessary to ensure:

- (a) Witnesses can give evidence in the language of their choice;
- (b) Interested parties can understand proceedings affecting them;
- (c) The Board can understand all evidence presented.

42.3 Documents may be submitted in any official language. The Board may require translation where necessary for its work.

42.4 The official record of proceedings shall be maintained in English, with translations provided where appropriate.

43. Accessibility and Reasonable Accommodations

43.1 The Board is committed to accessibility and shall:

- (a) Ensure hearing venues are accessible to persons with disabilities;

- (b) Provide reasonable accommodations for witnesses or parties with special needs;
- (c) Make adjustments to procedures where necessary to ensure full participation;

- (d) Provide assistance with technology for online participation where needed.

43.2 Persons requiring accommodations should notify the Secretary as early as possible.

44. Media and Public Relations

44.1 The Board may issue guidelines for media coverage, including restrictions on:

- (a) Photographing protected witnesses;
- (b) Reporting information subject to confidentiality orders;
- (c) Publishing material that might prejudice the inquiry;
- (d) Contempt of Board through media publications.

44.2 Only the members or Secretary may make official statements to media on behalf of the Board.

44.3 The Board may maintain official social media accounts for communication purposes. Posting contemptuous content by members of the public about the Board or witnesses on social media may constitute contempt.

45. Relationship with other Proceedings

45.1 The Board's inquiry is independent of any:

- (a) Criminal investigations or prosecutions;
- (b) Civil litigation;
- (c) Disciplinary proceedings;
- (d) Other inquiries or investigations.

45.2 The Board does not determine criminal guilt, civil liability, or impose penalties. Its role is to:

- (a) Investigate and establish facts;
- (b) Make findings based on evidence;
- (c) Make recommendations;(d) Report to the President [Commander in Chief].

45.3 Evidence given to the Board—

- (a) May be used in subsequent proceedings, subject to any indemnity granted under section 18 of the Act;

- (b) Shall be available to prosecution or regulatory authorities as appropriate;
- (c) May inform but does not bind other decision-makers.

45.4 The Board may consider whether to stay or adjourn its proceedings if—

- (a) Parallel criminal proceedings may be prejudiced;
- (b) A court orders or requests a stay;
- (c) Continuing would be contrary to the administration of justice.

However, the Board retains discretion to proceed with its inquiry where the public interest so requires.

46. Security and Safety

46.1 The Board may implement security measures including:

- (a) Security screening of persons entering hearing venues;
- (b) Restrictions on items that may be brought into hearings;
- (c) Presence of police or security officers;(d) Secure transportation for protected witnesses; (e) Any other measures necessary for safety.

46.2 Any person who—

- (a) Threatens violence or disruption;
- (b) Brings weapons or prohibited items into hearings;
- (c) Engages in violent or threatening behaviour; shall be removed and may be referred to the police for prosecution.

46.3 The Board may order evacuation of hearing venues in case of emergency and shall have contingency plans for such situations.

47. Technology and Electronic Records

47.1 The Board embraces electronic communications and—

- (a) Shall accept documents by email;
- (b) May conduct hearings via video conferencing;
- (c) Shall maintain digital records where appropriate;(d) May use electronic case management systems.

47.2 Documents may be signed electronically where the Board is satisfied as to authenticity.

47.3 The Board shall—

- (a) Protect personal data in accordance with applicable laws;
- (b) Maintain secure systems for confidential information;
- (c) Implement cybersecurity measures;
- (d) Ensure appropriate data retention and destruction policies.

48. Official Seal and Formal Documents

48.1 The Board may adopt an official seal for use on formal documents.

48.2 Documents bearing the Board's seal or signed by the Chairman or Secretary shall be accepted as authentic unless proven otherwise.

48.3 The Board may issue certified copies of documents or transcripts upon request and payment of reasonable copying fees.

49. Hours of Business and Contact Information

49.1 The Board's administrative office operates during normal business hours, generally 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM, Monday to Friday, except public holidays.

49.2 The Contact Information for the Board is: Email:

secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc

Address: Palais de Justice, Ile du Port, Mahe, Seychelles

Website: secretary@firearmsinquiry.sc

49.3 Provisions for handling urgent matters outside business hours may be specified by the Secretary.

50. Transition and Commencement

50.1 These procedures take effect from the date of their publication and apply to all proceedings from that date.

50.2 Applications or matters pending at the time these procedures take effect shall be dealt with under these procedures unless the Board determines otherwise.

50.3 Any inconsistency with prior directions or practices shall be resolved in favour of these procedures.

PART XIV: FINAL PROVISIONS

51. Sovereignty and Dignity of the Board

51.1 The Board is established by the President [Commander in Chief] under statutory authority and carries out functions in the public interest of Seychelles.

51.2 All persons appearing before or dealing with the Board shall:

- (a) Show appropriate respect for the Board's authority;
- (b) Recognise the importance of the Board's work;
- (c) Cooperate with the Board's legitimate requests;
- (d) Conduct themselves in a manner befitting the dignity of the proceedings.

51.3 The Board shall conduct itself with integrity, impartiality, and professionalism at all times.

52. Review and Evaluation

52.1 The Board may periodically review the effectiveness of these procedures and make amendments as necessary.

52.2 Public comments and opinions may be considered in evaluating and improving procedures.

53. Savings Provision

53.1 Nothing in these procedures shall—

- (a) Limit any power conferred on the Board by the Act;
- (b) Derogate from any privilege or immunity granted by the Act;
- (c) Create rights beyond those established by law;
- (d) Limit the Board's inherent power to regulate its own proceedings.
